Sock it to Cancer

Did you know September is Childhood Cancer Awareness Month?

We are going to collect cozy and comfy socks (socks with grips on bottom are in high demand) for cancer patients at St. Louis Children’s Hospital from September 19-26th. Classrooms will tie this Service Learning Project into their math and literacy curriculum for the week too!

September 19th: SILLY SOCK DAY
September 26th: SOCK HOP PARTY